

Frequently Answered Questions

Q. Are some people naturally gifted to sing?

A. Popular opinion is that some people have the ability to sing better than others based on the tone and agility of the instrument they were born with but the truth is anyone can improve with the correct training. As long as you are medically able to speak and hear correctly then you can sing.

Q. Are there age limits to singing?

A. No. If you are passionate about learning and you have a healthy voice we can work with you to achieving your goals.

Q. If I can sing already what are the benefits of lessons?

A. As with any athlete you need to train to be at your best and maintain the work you have done. You can also get stronger and improve over time. It is also beneficial to learn how to take care of your vocal cords to avoid developing nodules or any unnecessary strain.

Q. How many lessons do I need?

A. This depends on your long term goals, if you perform regularly or for fun, how quickly you learn, how much you practise and many other factors which we will discuss with you as part of your development plan.

Q. What sort of music do you teach?

A. We can work on style with you however our method of teaching gives you the vocal balance you need to be able to sing all styles.

Q. When are you open?

A. We offer lessons daytimes and evenings from 10am – 7pm Monday to Friday.

Q. I can't commit to every week, does that matter?

A. We can book you into a regular slot, this can be weekly, fortnightly or monthly, or you can book on an ad hoc basis depending on available slots.

Q. What if I need to cancel?

A. We operate a 48 hour cancellation policy so to avoid losing your fee please let us know as soon as you can by telephone, text or email. In the event of calling by phone and getting the voice-mail please leave a message and we will honour the cancellation at the time of the call.

Q. How can I get started?

A. Book a consultation today by calling us or sending an email.
